Re: U.S. v. Reilly Tar and Chemical
Civil No. 4-80-469

Dear Ed:

Our office would like information with regard to some Reilly Tar employees. This list of names is provided to you with the expectation that the Company will provide the information, without the need for a formal discovery request.

For each name on the list, please indicate whether the individual is currently employed by Reilly. If employed by Reilly, please identify past and current positions held, as well as past and current work locations. If not currently employed by Reilly, please provide the current address of the individual, his current telephone number and identify his current employer. Also, please identify those individuals who are deceased.

This letter is also written as a followup to the depositions of Messrs. Lindall and Van de North and a request that you return privileged documents which were unintentionally produced to you in the course of document production. Please return all copies of Reilly Exhibit Nos. 14, 19, 20, 22, 23, 27, 28, 34 and 37.

As a follow-up to the deposition of Bill Justin, please advise if he has located the document(s) which pertain to the Reilly Deep Well.

Very truly yours,

DENNIS M. COYNE
Special Assistant
Attorney General
